

Electrical and Instrumentation Mechanic

Assists in the installation and repair of AC power equipment and circuits; assists in the installation of rigid, thin wall and Poly Vinyl Chloride (PVC) conduit and wiring; assists in the fabrication of instrument and electrical panels; assists in the inspection, repair and preventative maintenance tasks on electrical power distribution equipment including variable frequency drives, motor starter, generators, switches and medium voltage switchgear; assists in the calibration and repair of instruments and analyzers; assists in the troubleshooting of Programmable Logic Controller based systems.

Starting salary of $22.18 per hour with opportunity for advancement. Excellent benefit package.

Minimum Requirements: Graduation from high school or high school equivalency diploma, plus one (1) year of paid full-time work experience in electrical or instrumentation fields OR graduation from a technical high school or trade school with a major in the electrical or instrumentation trades OR graduation from an Associate's degree in Electrical or Instrumentation Technology.